TOPATHOS YA TILEFTERIA
INE DINATOTERO APOLA TA KELIA!
(The passion for freedom is stronger than your prisons!)

Police bastards do always what they want beat even peaceful hippies
They break their own law and try to defend it also fuck them all!

TOPATHOS YA TILEFTERIA
INE DINATOTERO APOLA TA KELIA!

People in prison
like in small cages
it seems like fucking zoo
but may be more sadly Hmm...May be it is the same - when somebody take off your freedom without your desire.

Let's put all fucking cages and bosses on the fire!

Let's dance on their rest!

TOPATHOS YA TILEFTERIA
INE DINATOTERO APOLA TA KELIA!

This short text was written on the beach in NoBorder camp in Lesbos, after morning action at Paganis. Couple of people were in the roof and hanged out banners, the rest was supporting them in peaceful way-and was pushed by police, and after beaten by riot cops who used sticks to backs of running people.

DANCE OF DESTRUCTION

(SKARPRETTER)

Black block serenade cut you like a razorblade
Nothing stands forever. Even steel can be unmade
Join the mob, anger can't be locked up
Do the dance of destruction to the barricade rock

There will be a fight in the city streets tonight
Broken glass will shine in the pale moonlight

The barricades burn, the war machine churn
And just for a moment the tables have turned

No rules no law, no cops, no more Nothing really seems to be what it was before!
